FACULTY CAREERS PROGRAMS

PANEL: Insider’s View of the Faculty Search
Thursday, September 26, 2019, 6:00pm-7:15pm, 106 Stanley Hall
Anyone pursing a faculty career should understand the conventions of the academic job market. In this panel program, faculty will share their experiences with hiring committees, and discuss what candidates should know to better navigate the hiring process. Find out how positions are advertised, applications are sorted, and candidates are selected through screening and on-campus interviews. Panelists are UC Berkeley professors, and include:
• Lisa F. Barcellos PhD, MPH, Professor of Epidemiology and Director, Center for Computational Biology
• Matthew Francis, PhD, Professor of Chemistry, Department of Chemistry Chair
• Arash Komeili, PhD, Professor of Plant and Microbial Biology

PANEL: Negotiating Your Start-Up Package in Academia
Tuesday, December 3, 2019, 6:00pm-7:15pm, 106 Stanley Hall
Receiving a job offer is an exciting achievement for any candidate. However, establishing circumstances that will enable you to succeed in a new job requires preparation, evaluation and effective communication. This panel will address what you need to know about negotiating start-up packages for tenure-track faculty roles and is recommended for anyone who plans to pursue a faculty career in a research institution. Speakers include:
• Michael Botchan, PhD, Dean of Biological Sciences, Professor of Biochemistry, Biophysics and Structural Biology
• Dipti D. Nayak, PhD, Assistant Professor in Molecular and Cell Biology
• Additional panelists TBA