PROFESSIONALS IN RESIDENCE

In 2019-2020, accomplished scientists are visiting campus through a new Professionals in Residence (PIR) program, to increase doctoral students/postdocs exposure to a range of career paths that utilize advanced scientific training. PIR mentors will spend their one day “residency” providing expertise on career exploration and job searching.

FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 2020

Hemai Parthasarathy, Ph.D., Scientific Director of Breakout Labs (part of the Thiel Foundation) and CSO and Partner in Breakout Ventures

BIO: Dr. Parthasarathy is CSO and Partner in Breakout Ventures, a new fund that backs deep-technology companies at the intersections of technology, biology, materials, and energy. She also is the Scientific Director of Breakout Labs, a philanthropic program which supports scientist-entrepreneurs, where she establishes the scientific priorities of the program, evaluates submitted proposals, and advises portfolio companies.

Dr. Parthasarathy’s career includes extensive experience in scientific publishing and communications, first as North American Editor for Nature, and later with PLOS. She holds a Ph.D. in Brain and Cognitive Sciences from MIT.

REGISTER IN ADVANCE TO ATTEND!

- Dr. Parthasarathy will give a presentation with insights drawn from her career path & advice for those interested in similar roles. She’ll discuss how her work supports scientist entrepreneurs. 10am-11:30am, 482 Stanley Hall.
- She will offer 30 minute individual/small group (2-3 person) career advising sessions 1:30pm-4pm. (individuals may sign-up for advising & will be assigned a time-slot)

Sign-up via the link below